

Those learners who intend submitting an application for European Individual Accreditation with the EMCC can start collecting the necessary documentation right from the start.

1. Personal statement - to be completed as an assignment during the EQA Programme

This reflective piece of work helps us get to know you and understand your thinking and approach to mentoring/coaching. It sets the context for you as a person and your approach to your mentoring/coaching. You are asked to give a personal statement that covers the following questions (between 300 and 500 words):

- What motivates you to be a mentor/coach?
- What is your vision of mentoring/coaching, your philosophy?
- What theoretical underpinning principles shape your practice/model? (You may like to include your own model/the model you use)
- How has your practice evolved and developed?
- How do you understand the EMCC Global Code of Ethics and Diversity and Inclusion Declaration?

2. Prior Experience Validation Form
